

Ye Toop Dorām

Afghan/Persian Folksong

Voice

Ye toop do-ram toop do-ram, ye toop-do ram toop do-ram ye toop do-ram to - op do-ram ye toop do - ram toop do - ram

Yek do seh! lōl' beh-day! Kel kel kel lee - a - lee - a lōl beh-day Kel - kel kel lee - a lee a lōl beh day.

Ye toop dorām "O I have the ball."
 Yek, do, seh ^{say} "1, 2, 3"
 loe hce
 Lōl' beh-day "Roll it away"
 Kel-kel-kel lee-yah, lee-yah, Lōl' beh-day

loe hce

A children seated in a circle pass the ball twice per measure

1-2-3 Freeze the ball on 3 (seh)

Teacher calls out the name of a child who leaps to the middle of the circle.

B Roll the ball back and forth while the child in the center dodges and jumps. Repeat the B section until the child in the center has been tagged three times.

Can throw in another ball.

Percussion (2 drums)

Farsi (Persian) is the language of Iran and parts of Western Afghanistan. Published source unknown Collected in 1997 by Marilyn Shepherd, Kelly School, Carlsbad, California from Nahead Aslani, the mother of Zoha! Aslani. Reprinted with permission

Jlitman